OAKLAND, Ill., March 28.—Aspiring for the office of mayor of this, "the prettiest little city on earth," Candidate "Uncle" Charlie Curtis has the following platform:
Promises to get the street sweeper out at least often enough to get some fertilizer for his garden, the same to be carried at the expense of the city.
Promises not to get his automobile out on the street and pass up any of the slower machines.
Thinks it unwise to pave the street to the cemetery so long as he owns property on that street, but is willing to leave the matter to the street and alley committee so long as they will do what he says.
Thinks the salary of the Aldermen should be lowered to $1 a month and the dollar added to the salary of the Mayor.
Thinks it all right for any one to take a "nap" after July 1 if they can get it.
Reserves the right, acting as chief of police and also merchant police, to draw the salary of both.
Says if elected will not be controlled by the boys who loaf at Allen's feed store; that he will take orders from no one and give orders to everybody, and will see that they are obeyed.

PLAN TO FLY OVER OCEAN AND BACK

LONDON, March 28.—The airship section of the royal air forces has announced the two airships recently launched—R-33 and R-34—will not participate in any trans-Atlantic competition, but will demonstrate that they can cross the ocean.
The airships, it was said, probably will not start before May. One of them will cross Scotland to Newfoundland, where it will drop a passenger in a parachute. If the weather is good, returning to Scotland without stopping. If the weather is unfavorable the craft will continue to the United States, landing there.
The other ship will fly by the southern route, touching in Africa, landing in Florida.
The Royal Aero Club announces its attempt to cross the Atlantic will be made early in April, starting from Newfoundland.
The latest entry for the Mall's $50,000 prize is S. P. Raynham, an Englishman.
Discussing the official statement regarding the R-33 and R-34, a member of the Royal Aero Club said that Americans should not be surprised if their test trips result in one of these mornings landing in America.

BENEFIT CONCERT FOR AID OF BELGIAN BABES

To raise funds for the Sisters of Notre Dame of Namur in order that they may continue their work in behalf of destitute Belgian children, the Sisters of Notre Dame of Trinity College will give a benefit concert at the National Theater at 4:30 o'clock next Thursday afternoon.
Proceeds of the benefit will be sent to the Sisters of Notre Dame of Namur in response to an appeal from overseas for funds to care for homeless Belgian boys and girls. Reports reaching this country are that many of the sisters have lost their possessions in the war and are unable to continue their instruction of the children, who were made homeless by the Hun.
Plans have been made to have some of the best available concert talent at the benefit Thursday. Tickets may be secured from the faculty of Trinity College.

WOULD MAKE AUTO OWNERS LOCK CARS

Prevention of thefts of automobiles by having all manufacturers place suitable locks on them was recommended by Major Raymond W. Pullman, chief of police, before the insurance committee of the Board of Trade at its meeting yesterday afternoon.
Major Pullman declared that his department was planning to ask the United States Chamber of Commerce to induce all manufacturers of motor cars to adopt this plan.
Rudolph L. Jose suggested that the police department compel owners of machines to procure locks and keep their machines locked at all times when parked or standing in the streets unattended.
A report on traffic was presented by I. S. Brower and adopted. It approves the recent traffic regulations, recommends more one-way streets in the business section, and asks increased pay for policemen.

D. C. LINE GETAWAY IS THING OF PAST

Autoists who speed up and then laugh at the pursuing Washington motorcycle policemen as they cross the District line into Maryland will not have much to brag of in the future.
Washington's motorcycle policemen can now pursue the speeders into Maryland and arrest them. This arrangement has been agreed upon by Col. E. Austin Baughman, automobile commissioner of Maryland, after a conference with Major Raymond W. Pullman, Superintendent of Police.
Yesterday Mr. Baughman designated as special deputies the motorcycle policemen of Washington who are detailed at the District line, with the authority to follow violators of the speed law over the line.
"This will have the effect of breaking up speeding in the vicinity of the District line and on roads leading into Maryland," said Major Pullman today.
Motorists who in the past dashed across the line realizing that the Washington policemen had no authority to give chase as they were out of the jurisdiction of the District will now be brought under control.

Don't Forget You've Got to Set Your Clock Ahead An Hour Soon

Get ready to put your clock ahead an hour.
Under the provisions of the daylight saving law, all timepieces in the country are to be set ahead one hour at 2 a. m. next Sunday morning. Of course, there's no penalty attached to it if you fail to sit up until that hour, so just put your clocks and watches an hour ahead when you go to bed tomorrow night, and then forget all about it. You won't really notice anything has happened until it's time to go to Sunday evening service. Then you'll find that it's still light.

The plans of the various allied governments for the supply of artificial limbs to amputated soldiers was another subject under consideration. The advantages of the adoption of a standard type of leg and arm was reported upon in detail.
More successful results than ever before are now being attained in the dealing with the disabled men. The foundation of success is the correct choice for the man of the right job.

PLAYS HIS HUNCH; GETS PEEPING TOM

WAUKEGAN, Ill., March 28.—Playing "hunches" is Scott Peters favorite pastime. Scott is a full-blooded Indian graduate of Carleton University and conducts a cleaning establishment here.
He had a presentiment somebody might attempt to rob his home and decided to accept an invitation to dance. His wife, himself and three companions remained at home. They waited. Suddenly Mrs. Peters noticed a face at her bedroom window as she was preparing to retire. It went away immediately. Presently it reappeared. This time she screamed just loud enough for Scott and his companions to hear, but hardly loud enough to disturb the intruder.
Peters and his friends dashed through a door and in a mad foot race overtook Albert Johnson, aged eighteen, not a burglar, just a "peeping" Tom.

HURLEY NAMES GRAVES TO SIT AT CONFERENCE

Lieut. John Temple Graves has been honored by Edward N. Hurley, chairman of the Shipping Board, by being appointed to sit in with the commissioners at the labor and shipping branch of the peace conference, according to word reaching Washington today.
Lieutenant Graves and his brother, Lieut. James de Graffenreid Graves, Washington boys, went overseas with the First Ninth artillery corps.
